

Health in Mind

Promoting positive mental health and wellbeing in Edinburgh, the Lothians and Scottish Borders

Support and Development Worker: re:discover Borders * Maternity Leave Cover

Hours: 18 hours per week (maternity cover)

Salary: £22,779 pro-rata (AP4 point 27, Health in Mind linked scale)

Support and Development Worker: re:discover Midlothian

Hours: 18 hours per week

Salary: £22,779 - £25,280 pro-rata (AP4 points 27-30, Health in Mind linked scale) re:discover are looking for one or two outstanding candidate(s) to fulfil either of the above 18 hour posts or one full-time post.

re:discover is a recovery focussed befriending service, helping people to take the first steps towards meeting new people, rediscovering old hobbies and developing new interests and connections.

The successful candidate will recruit, train and manage volunteers; support service users; and manage and support volunteer/ service user matches.

The successful candidate will have experience of recruiting and managing volunteers; recording, monitoring and evaluation of outcomes, local knowledge of the Borders/ Midlothian, alongside other essential experience, knowledge, skills and abilities.

* it will be necessary to have a full driving licence and access to a car for the re:discover Borders post.

Closing Date: Friday 29th August 2014

Interview Date: Tuesday 9th September 2014

An application pack is available on our website www.health-in-mind.org.uk

If you have difficulties accessing the pack please contact Annmarie Mitchell, HR/Admin Assistant on 0131 225 8508 or email annmarie@health-in-mind.org.uk

Enquiries further to reading the information pack to: Kevin Kent, Befriending Services Assistant Manager on 0131 225 8508.

These posts are subject to membership of the PVG Scheme.

Health in Mind promotes equality and diversity in the workplace.

Registered charity no SC004128