

SCOTTISH BORDERS

RURAL TRANSPORT CONFERENCE 2019

FRIDAY 28 JUNE 10AM to 1.30PM

Council Chamber | Scottish Borders Council
Headquarters | Newtown St Boswells

fitfor2024

Community groups and individuals are invited to the Scottish Borders' first ever rural transport conference.

The summit is part of Scottish Borders Council's new Fit for 2024 programme, which aims to enhance community engagement, participation and empowerment.

Speakers include:

- John Taylor, leading community transport practitioner from the TAS Partnership – how to create flexible and innovative solutions for community transport
- Sharon Morrison, Commercial Manager at Borders Buses – the challenges of running a rural bus network and their use of the latest technology
- Rab Jeffrey on the successful Bo'ness Community Bus project
- West Linton Community Council on its taxi card scheme
- Kathy Cremin, BAVS/Berwickshire Wheels Community Transport – the role played by community transport
- Officers from Scottish Borders Council on transport planning, new ECar Club scheme and the role of the new South of Scotland Economic Partnership
