

Public Protection Briefing

"It's everyone's responsibility"

The Public Protection Training Sub Group of the Child Protection Committee have prepared a short introductory briefing, to raise awareness of Public Protection issues in the Scottish Borders and the resources in place, which is available to all groups and organisations in the private, public and third sectors.

Following interest received from a number of Community Councils, and other groups, we are offering to deliver this briefing at central points across the Scottish Borders which will also provide an opportunity to meet and network. The Briefing lasts around two hours with plenty of time to discuss the issues and ask questions.

We are proposing to deliver the briefings from 7 – 9.00 p.m. in venues in Eyemouth (14/9/16), Duns (21/9/16), Kelso (27/9/16), Jedburgh (4/10/16), Hawick (12/10/16), Selkirk (19/10/16), Galashiels (25/10/16), Innerleithen (1/11/16) and Peebles (9/11/16), all dependant on numbers attending.

Please contact the CPC Clerical Assistant, by e-mailing:- cpctraining@scotborders.gcsx.gov.uk or call 01835 825080 ext. 5766 (giving your name, organisation and email address)

It would be very helpful if you could indicate the numbers from your Community Council who wish to attend and your preferred location. Your booking will be fully confirmed only once the minimum of ten places have been booked.

Please note: This "Briefing" does not replace any specific or mandatory training required for any occupation or professional role.
